Scan and email application form and letter of recommendation in PDF format to your Provincial Committee Member (see list below):

CRITERIA FOR JAMES L. MCKENZIE SCHOLARSHIP

- The scholarship is open to any Premier dancer registered with ScotDance Canada who is in good standing (holds a current year RSOBHD dance card).
- The scholarship money should be used to further Highland dance commitment (e.g. attending workshops, travelling to competitions, highland dance instruction, purchase of dance outfits, etc.)
- Candidates must demonstrate on their application how they have contributed to their community as a result of their dancing and other associated pursuits.
- There should be quality in the candidate's application, i.e. candidates must show that they have spent time thinking about their application, taking time to put their thoughts into words that clearly detail their experience and commitment, and are appropriate for their age.
- The candidate must show how Highland dance has had an impact on their life.
- There should be evidence that the candidate took time to research who James L. McKenzie was.
- Applications are to be sent by email to the Provincial Committee Member for your province. Each application is to be in a single PDF document and application must be complete, including a letter from the candidate's instructor.
- The number of age groups will be determined on a yearly basis; the scholarship amount will be distributed accordingly.
- Any dancer, who has previously been a recipient as per the official scholarship list, is not eligible. This list can be viewed at www.scotdance.ca
- Incomplete applications will not be eligible for consideration.
- The recipient(s) of the scholarship, if attending the current year's SDCCS event, will be required to perform the 6-step "A Tribute to James L McKenzie" at the Scholarship presentations on the Canadian Championships Day.
